Instructor Bios

Keith Plemmons (Ph.D, PMP, P.E.) earned his Project Management Professional (PMP) certification in 1993 and, most recently, his Authorized Training Partner (ATP) PMP Trainer badge in 2021. Currently, Keith is the business unit leader for Southeast Associated Services, Inc. and works with engineering, construction, and manufacturing companies to strengthen their teams.

Barbara A. McKinnon, Auburn University- IT Project Manager (PMP, CAPM, Master of Science in Project Management, PMI Standards Standing Appeals committee member) helps organizations execute strategic technical initiatives. Barbara's expertise ranges from implementing software development projects to re-engineering systems that improve business process.

Richard Scott Barron, JD, PMP, PMI-ACP, CSM, Assoc. Director of IT in Auburn University's Project Management Office- manages team of project managers that consistently direct over twenty concurrent enterprise level IT projects involving the Office of Information Technology. Provides consistent leadership training in the form of Leadership seminars & Project Management Training for OIT.